Here is a question that we receive quite frequently at the dealership from new customers.

"Is there any books that show maps for Day Trips or Routes for motorcycle touring?"

I've always thought that a book that showed suggested trips of our area to Fly and Ride participants would be helpful as well.

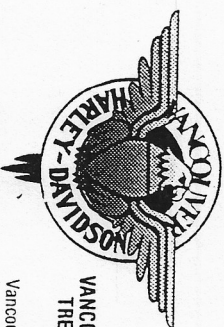

Here is an idea for our local chapter to create such a concept. If you have a favorite place or route with suggested stops along the way, please submit your ideas along with a map to me at the store.

We could then produce an attractive, durable booklet that we could sell and partial proceeds could go to a worthwhile cause. Perhaps BCCOM?

There is also an opportunity for our store to add coupons to this book.

Magazines such as Canadian Biker, are wonderful sources for longer trips, yet many people would like to see a compilation of trips leaving from the Vancouver area.

Any thoughts our comments to me would be greatly appreciated.
